My name is Joe Rodriguez Molina. I was born in Dallas, Texas 18 June 1924. I have been employed at the Texas Schoolbook Depository for sixteen (16) years.

In 1955, I attended an organizational meeting of the G.I. Forum at the Baker Hotel. Mr. Jesse Garcia, from the Fort Worth chapter was present and assisted us in forming the Dallas G.I. Forum. The following men were among those present who became charter members:

Edmund Villasana, a jeweler
Felix Botello
Bill Lowery
Joe Landin
Augustin Estrada

The later meetings were held at the Guadalupe Social Center. Edmund Villasana was elected the first chairman. I was elected chairman in two separate years.

I am no longer a member of the G.I. Forum, having failed to renew my membership after July 1962.

The present chairman of the Forum is Brownie Trevino, owner of Oak Cliff Blind Service. Albert Orozco, a school teacher from Fort Worth, is now secretary. Albert lives on Delano Place here in Dallas.

Otto Mullenax, an attorney, and Pepper Garcia have been members of the G.I. Forum. Garcia is no longer an active member.
